

SAT 29TH SEPTEMBER

CANTERBURY EUROFAIR

Depart Oxted 9.00am (Route A) for Canterbury's Dane John Gardens and the Eurofair, which promotes Kent producers and raises the profile of food and drink originating from the area. As well as fine food and drink from around the county visitors will be able to enjoy goodies from all over Europe. The popular world village market revisits Eurofair bringing back its unique festival atmosphere. Promising live entertainment and a wide range of stalls, the market will feature exotic cooking, homemade, healthy and traceable foods together with ethically traded, handmade, eco-friendly arts, crafts, clothing, jewellery, accessories and ideas from all over the world. A gathering of colourful characters and traditional craft demonstrations promise to add up to a fun day out with something for all the family. Within a few minutes walk of Dane John Gardens is Canterbury's city centre. Visit the cathedral, meander through the narrow streets or visit the shops – from modern department stores and trendy boutiques to antique shops and picture galleries. Return leave 5.00pm. Arriving back at Godstone approx. 6.15pm.

HIGHGROVE HOUSE GARDENS

We are hoping to get tickets for a tour of the garden at Highgrove (Prince Charles' garden), but tickets don't go on sale until February, (and we may not be able to get tickets), however, if you would be interested in this tour, please let us know and in the event that we are fortunate enough to get tickets, we will contact you.

WAVERLEY PADDLE STEAMER

The future of the Waverley beyond 2012 is still uncertain, however she will be sailing this year. As yet they haven't released their programme, but if you are interested in sailing in her, please contact us and we will let you have further details when we have them.
